Notice NO-141A

As per the norms laid by U.G.C, all the staff members of the college are being informed that under the tutor-ward scheme a committee has been formed according to which each staff member is a guardian of the students allotted to them who are studying in the college.

- 1) The guardian teacher will keep a record of the students' college activities and will also guide the students from time to time.
- 2) They have to maintain a record register on the basis of the given format.

The teachers are expected to perform this duty allotted to them sincerely and with full responsibility.
